

How do we faithfully engage the major issues of our day?

*Just*Matters

JustMatters programs invite small groups to explore critical realities of our day through the lens of faith. These issue-based programs cultivate genuine dialogue, prayer, and community that lead toward faithful action.

JustMatters

JustMatters programs are small-group processes for 8 to 12 people. The following programs are offered for 2017-2018.

Hunger for Change

This program explores the realities of food insecurity in a prayerful process that leads to faithful action to end hunger.

Church of Second Chances

This program examines the Christian principle of restorative justice and addresses the need for comprehensive prison reform. (8 sessions)

The Sultan and the Saint

Grounded in the foundational teaching of both faiths, to love God and neighbor, this module brings Muslims and Christians together in dialogue. (8 sessions)
